

Local attorney, James L. Nulman, receives certification as an Appellate Mediator

Fort Myers, Fla. (July 6, 2011) --- James L. Nulman, a Certified Circuit Civil Mediator and State Qualified Arbitrator, is one of the first attorneys in Southwest Florida to be certified by the Florida Supreme Court as an Appellate Mediator.

Appellate mediation certification was approved by the Florida Supreme Court in 2010 and establishes a standard of excellence for the mediation process governing cases under appeal.

Nulman has also been named a 2011 Florida Super Lawyer in the area of alternative dispute resolution for the third year in a row. As a Florida Super Lawyer, Nulman is recognized as one of the top five percent of attorneys in the state. Nomination to this prestigious group of attorneys is the result of rigorous, comprehensive and confidential review process by peers and ranking by Law & Politics.

With more than 20 years experience providing mediation and arbitration services and over 25 years experience in civil litigation, Nulman has frequently been recognized for his outstanding service to clients, commitment to enhancing the legal profession and his involvement in civic and community affairs.

Nulman is a Certified Circuit Civil Mediator, Certified U.S. District Court Mediator, Certified Family Mediator and a State of Florida Qualified Arbitrator. He was named one of the Best Lawyers in America for 2011, 2010 and 2010. His mediation practice covers a wide range of disputes including: business disputes and dissolutions, construction disputes, copyright and trademark infringements, contract disputes, employment issues, real estate disputes, medical malpractice, personal injury, family law disputes and wrongful death.
